Dedication Steve Clark

History is one of those subjects - one with inevitable dates and memorization. When I first walked into Mr. Clark's US History class, I was prepared to take in dates, places, and people, and recite them back. However, what we all got was something very different. We spent the semester learning the lessons of history, and how to use these lessons in our lives. We went in knowing little, and came out knowing all the dates, places and people in spite of ourselves. The emphasis was always on the importance of history, and instead of simple facts, we walked away stimulated and ready for the future.

Mr. Clark is one of those teachers who will always go out of his way to make sure that every student is where they need to be; headed in the right direction. He encouraged participation and led us into class discussions that allowed us to have input and to feed off of everyone else's ideas.

Outside of the classroom, Mr. Clark has been an integral part in establishing one of the most innovative daily activities at Rutland High School - the televised announcements. As with everything else, Mr. Clark found a way to make a simple listing of necessary facts exciting, refreshing and fun. Students who participate in this program learn technology skills to carry throughout their lives, and all RHS students benefit from this imaginative media form.

The class of 2003 dedicates our yearbook to Mr. Clark. He is an amazing teacher who makes learning fun and teaches more than facts. Students emerge from his class better informed about the world, history and the future. Mr. Clark has experienced every aspect of life, it seems, and is able to teach us through his own experiences. Each student leaves his class more prepared to take on what life has to bring and knows far more than just the history of the United States. Mr. Clark's amazing attitude and perseverance can be summed up by one of the first things he said to our class, "I have never lost a game, I've only run out of time."

Boy's Cross Country

The boy's Cross Country team had a very successful season this year. Some athletes such as Pat Abatiell, Brian Firliet and Andrew Simonds had personal bests. They competed against such schools as Otter Valley, Leland and Gray, Mill River, Brattleboro and Mount Anthony. Their season ended favorably with the team placing second overall in the Marble Valley League.

Second Row: (L to R) Coach Mike Carmolli, Ted Lindgren, Ben Purcell, Matt Marsh, Rob Turner, Tom Masse, Ryan Patch, Coach Tom Geisler, Coach Greg McClallen

What is your favorite cross country memory of Coach Greg this year?

"Him picking me up in his truck during one of our long runs."

-Ted Lindgren

"Bringing Greg to Target."

-Morgan McCuaig

"Listening to his stories."

-Brian Firliet

This year marked the end of a great era. Coach Greg McClallen decided to hang up his running spikes after 32 years with the cross country team. Next year he will be moving on, leaving the cross country team to Mr. Carmolli. Though he will not be present on the field, his teachings and memories will always be remembered.

Second Row: (L to R) Coach Greg McClallen, Coach Tom Geisler, Kathleen Sanborn, Yvonne Olney, Kate Brittain, Coach Mike Carmolli Missing: Allie Ogg

The Girl's team had an excellent season. Some strong runners included Gatorade State Player of the Year athlete, Kathleen Sanborn, Denise Riordan, Yvonne Olney and Allie Ogg. The team took first place at the Marble Valley League Championship for the fourth year. They also won all of their meets at Mountaintop and Brattleboro as well as winning the Chester Invitational. The girl's finished fourth in the state overall and third in New England's combined with the rest of the Vermont team.

The girls take a quick group shot before they get down and dirty.

Liz and Melanie during team bonding time.

"I fell down a hill and took a nosedive at Theford because the hill was icy." -Yvonne Olney

"During a race I took a wrong turn and ended up ahead of everyone else. I had to turn around and go back" -Torey Olson

"I got pushed into a tree once" -Brian Firliet

And they're off! The girl's team starts at the beginning of the New England Invitational.

STUDENT LIFE

Life is what happens to you while you're busy making other plans.

Raider Spirit

Juniors and Seniors having fun at the Bonfire!!

Getting ready for the big game

SPIRIT WEEK '02-'03

This year, spirit week was a little bit different. With the change of locker assignments, only seniors decorated the hallways. The annual pep rally, led by the cheerleaders hosted various games and activities, including performances by not only the cheerleading squad, but the varsity field hockey, cross country, and football teams. The student council also held a bonfire outside after the pep rally. Despite the rain, everyone had fun.

The football players do their huddle during the pep rally!

Sooner or later we discover that important moments in life are not the advertised, not birthdays, the graduations, not the great goals achieved. The real milestones are less captivating. They come to the door of memory unannounced. They amble in and simply never leave. Our lives are measured by these. Friends, ill always love u. U too travis

High-tech care with a hometown touch

For more than 100 years, Vermonters—and our neighbors from New York and New Hampshire have called Rutland Regional Medical Center their "home away from home" when they needed health care.

Diagnostic imaging, cancer care, cardiac catheterization, Vermont's only nationally certified sleep disorders center, 120 of the area's finest physicians in 35 specialty areas ... it's all right here, at Rutland Regional. Whether you are making a quick appointment or needing an extended stay, our medical team will give you expert care with a personal touch.

Rutland Regional. Proud to be your hometown hospital.

Allison Citro

Your intelligence, humor, compassion, integrity, and strong will enabled you to rise to every challenge and made living with you an adventure from day one.

Continue to follow your heart and ideals. Enjoy the challenges and adventures ahead. Look back occasionally and know we are always with you.

Of your many accomplishments, the greatest one is the person you have become. You make our lives special.

Love,

Mom, Dad & Brian

Shana Duval

Shana,

How do we count the ways? Intelligent, sensitive, generous and forgiving nature barely touch the real you. Your irresistible charm and ability to push yourself harder in the face of adversity, along with your genuine enthusiasm for living and learning are just a few of the ways that make us the lucky ones to be the parents of a daughter that is so strong and healthy in mind, body and spirit. You are the sunshine in so many lives! Where ever you go, what ever you do, never lose that "Shana" style! Know that we will always be there for you, if you can't see us, just smile and put your hand over your heart.

"Attitude isn't half the battle; it is the deterrent of all battles!"

Another graduation has come to pass, my you've grown up wonderfully and fast. From the little girl of yesterday to the young lady of today. You've made us proud we're so happy to say.

Love you Muffy,
Mom & Greg

Daniel Doenges

Daniel, We can't believe how fast the time has gone! You've become such a wonderful young man and it has been exciting watching you grow.
We are so proud of you. All the tennis matches, hockey games and soccer games that you played in were fabulous because you always gave 110% and you had fun as well. Your sense of humor has been a gift to our family and we thank you for that. Keep making good choices as you move on to the next chapter in your life. College awaits you; life awaits you. Continue to live your life for life, "Work hard, and play harder."

Congratulations Class of 2003

Your hopes and dreams are all your own
And you are free to follow them with strengths and talents uniquely yours.

So strive to fulfill your self desires and don't discard them at times of discouragement.

Yours is the power to be what you would be
For if you can imagine something; you can achieve it.

And if you can dream something;
you can become it.

Lindsay,

You are such an extraordinary person.
What a gift you have been; what a joy you have been. You have made us proud everyday and you have made us laugh everyday (Our dinner conversations will never be the same).

As you begin your new journey, never forget that even though we will be apart, you will always be with us.

We will miss you!
